

Bio: Chris Kalla-Bishop

International Post Corporation

Director, Finance and Human Resources

---

Working mainly in the transport, packages/express and mail sectors, Chris Kalla-Bishop has led the commercial aspects of company restructurings, grown profitable business divisions and led major acquisitions.

Mr Kalla-Bishop's track-record also includes the redesign of product ranges and price structures, brand repositioning and promotion, and the restructuring of national account, sales and customer service activities.

Previous roles include leading change management for the Engineering Directorate of London Underground, the interim Finance Director of IPC, the Commercial Director of Parcelforce Worldwide at the time of its complete restructuring, and General Manager of Parcelforce International, where he pioneered the first major acquisition made by the Royal Mail Group. Mr Kalla-Bishop's early career was as a business manager in the container and rail freight industries.

Mr Kalla-Bishop has an economics degree from the London School of Economics and an MBA from the London Business School.