International Post Corporation

Partnership between CTTexpress and DHL reaches customers with international offering

29-10-2026

New express delivery product at CTT with added benefits for customers. This offer combines the proximity of the CTT network with the international experience of DHL. Product available in CTT stores and points of sale, and also online.

The launch of a set of new tariffs on the CTT network reinforces the offer of international shipments to Europe, for individual and business customers, thanks to the strategic partnership between CTTexpress and DHL.

The proximity of the CTT network, combined with DHL's international experience, puts this solution at the service of the growing needs of cross-border e-commerce. Available in CTT stores and Points, the service guarantees an efficient experience aligned with the demands of the international market.

“This is a very important step in realizing the strategic partnership between CTTexpress and DHL. We continue to transform the partnership into concrete benefits for our customers, providing a more competitive international offering supported by one of the most efficient logistics networks in Europe. This is yet another example of how we are strengthening CTTexpress's role as a partner for individual and corporate customers in an increasingly international context,” says João Sousa, CTT administrator.

The solution is available for shipments to 23 European countries starting from €17.49, with estimated deliveries from 3 business days and for orders up to 20kg in actual weight. The recipient can receive the order at a DHL point in the destination country (DHL Service Point) or at their address.

Source: CTT Portugal Post