Kastytis Valantinas elected as Director General of Lithuanian Post

05-05-2025

The Board of Directors of Lithuanian Post has appointed Kastytis Valantinas, who has more than 20 years of management experience in the field of parcels and logistics, as the new CEO of the company for a five-year term . He will begin his duties as CEO of the company on May 12 of this year.

"Lithuanian Post services are necessary for many people throughout Lithuania every day. I very much hope and wish that the new head of the company will successfully initiate innovations that are necessary in a changing market, while maintaining the highest quality of services provided. Our fundamental expectations for Lithuanian Post as a shareholder are the successful development of parcel machines in regions - towns and villages, greater accessibility of services, strengthening the company's financial sustainability and clear communication with customers," says Minister of Transport and Communications Eugenijus Sabutis.

Before his appointment as the new head of Lithuanian Post, K.Valantinas held the positions of Board Member and Executive Director of Omniva LT. From 2018 to August 2023, he worked at Lithuanian Post, heading the Operations and Sales Department. K.Valantinas also gained professional experience in other companies engaged in transport, logistics and parcel delivery activities: Trucking Experts and DPD Lietuva.

The company's board sets ambitious goals for the new manager, related to the implementation of the provisions of the new Postal Law, significant improvement of customer experience, rapid implementation of technological solutions, and ensuring efficient and sustainable operations.

"Kastytis returns to Lithuanian Post with many years of experience in the parcel and logistics sector, having led significant organizations and successfully implemented strategic projects. We believe that his strong leadership, strategic thinking and sector competencies will help Lithuanian Post move forward even faster," says JÅ«ratÄ— StanišauskienÄ—, Chairwoman of the Board of Lithuanian Post.

"Lithuanian Post is a company that I am familiar with, fulfilling a meaningful mission, and I am returning to it with a clear goal – to contribute to its further sustainable growth and development. We will strive for Lithuanian Post to be even more appreciated for its reliability, innovative solutions and the added value it creates for residents, businesses and the entire state. We will strengthen our positions not only in Lithuania, but also in the Baltic region, because only by successfully operating in the dynamic parcel services sector and at the same time ensuring the high quality of universal postal services, will the company successfully meet the ever-growing expectations of its customers," says K.Valantinas.

The Board of Directors of Lithuanian Post engaged the executive search company AIMS International Lietuva UAB to organize the selection of the General Director of Lithuanian Post. A total of 32 candidates participated in the competition. The new Head of Lithuanian Post was appointed to the position after receiving the conclusions of all competent institutions.
