

Gold level performance again in corporate responsibility

04-08-2017

Posti has been rewarded with a Gold recognition level for the company's corporate responsibility performance by EcoVadis, an international research company. With a score of 72/100 points, Posti is in the top 5% of companies assessed by Ecovadis - in all categories.

Posti has been rewarded with a Gold recognition level for the company's corporate responsibility performance by EcoVadis, an international research company. With a score of 72/100 points, Posti is in the top 5% of companies assessed by Ecovadis - in all categories.

EcoVadis is a collaborative platform providing sustainability ratings and performance improvement tools for global supply chains. 30,000 suppliers have joined EcoVadis covering 150 purchasing categories and 110 countries. Each year they are rated within four themes: environmental, social/human rights, ethics/fair business practices, and supply chain.

- We are happy to have achieved an even better result than last year. In the midst of the transformation of the industry we are very pleased to be recognised in the different areas of responsibility. Responsibility is at the core of our operations, says Head of Sustainability Appu Haapio at Posti.

To read more about Posti's sustainability, please click here.

Source: Posti