At its meeting held on 21 May, the Supervisory Board of Omniva (AS Eesti Post) decided to dismiss Joonas Saluveer, Chairman of the Management Board of Omniva. The contract of Joonas Saluveer will run out on 31 May 2018. Anssi Arumeel, currently Member of the Board, will carry out the duties of the Chairman until the new Chairman is assigned in autumn.

'The Supervisory Board has dismissed Joonas Saluveer from the position of the Chairman of the Management Board due to diverging visions as to the future strategy for the company,' said Bo Henriksson, Chairman of Omniva's Supervisory Board. 'Common understanding and smooth collaboration, however, are very important now, since Omniva has ahead of it the management of several changes and the implementation of major projects in order to keep up with the rapid development of the sector.'

'We would like to thank Joonas for his contribution to the development of the company both as Chairman of the Management Board and in building up Omniva's Lithuanian and Latvian subsidiaries previously,' Henriksson said.

According to the best practice in the management of state-owned enterprises, an open competition, to be announced this autumn, will be held to fill the position of the Chairman of the Management Board. In the interim, the duties of the Chairman of the S Board will be performed by Anssi Arumeel, who has the full support of the Supervisory Board for doing so.
