

2022 PostEurop General Assembly in Dublin, brought members together with key decisions made

14-10-2022

On the first physical General Assembly since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, over 110 participants including delegates from around 40 PostEurop Member Countries and several observers, attended the event. This high number of attendance exceeded our expectations, as some pandemic-related restrictions and unexpected setbacks are still being experienced by many of us.

The opening of the General Assembly started with our Chairman, Mr Jean-Paul Forceville, and our Secretary General, Mr Botond Szebeny thanking the organising team of An Post for their commitment and hard work in preparing this event (first scheduled for October 2020) and welcoming all delegates. Mr David McRedmond CEO of An Post mentioned the key role postal operators played during the COVID-19 pandemic, and how together they were able to face the various challenges, and to support and serve their communities, while reshaping the e-commerce, data, and digital infrastructures. In his welcome address, Mr Masahiko Metoki, Director General of the Universal Postal Union (UPU) also spoke on the important role PostEurop, and its Members play at a UPU level and how both organisations can together help guide discussions in the postal world and influence shaping the future of posts.

Update from Mr Igor Smelyansky, CEO of

Ukrposhta (by remote connection)

Delegates received a live update from Ukrposhta's colleagues and their CEO Mr Igor Smelyansky via live stream on the current difficult situation in Ukraine, including the status and condition of Ukrposhta's operations and infrastructures in the country. Ukrposhta is grateful for the continued support PostEurop Members provided to Ukrposhta, their postal colleagues, their families, friends, and Ukraine during these difficult times.

Reconduction of the suspension of JSC Russian Post and RUE Belpochta

Subsequent to the recent PostEurop Board of Directors decision on 23 June 2022 to the temporary suspend JSC Russian Post and RUE Belpochta's membership rights, PostEurop Members were asked to vote on the reconduction of the suspension. This motion was approved unanimously by our Members, hence the suspension will continue in place for one more year until the next General Assembly in 2023. It is important to note that, this decision does not impact the postal services.

Election of a new member of the Board of Directors (BoD) replacing Mrs Olga Zhitnikova

The temporary suspension of JSC Russian Post also led to the revocation of Mrs Olga Zhitnikova from the PostEurop Board of Directors before the end of the current term of office on 31 December 2022. During the General Assembly, PostEurop Members were asked to elect the replacing official, and Mr Levan Chikvaidze, CEO of Georgian Post was elected to fulfil this role.

"My fourth and final term as President will end on 31 December. During these twelve years, we have increased the visibility and credibility of our association. This is a collective effort that must, of course, be continued. I am very happy to hand over to the very talented Elena Fernández Rodríguez who has my full confidence. She can count on my total support. Finally, I was very grateful for the thanks I received during our General Assembly.", said Jean-Paul Forceville Chairman of PostEurop

"We are living very challenging moments, we are facing health, economic, social, human and climatic risks. All these challenges and the ones to come, will call for further cooperation, open dialogue, innovative thinking and trust. I really believe that we can only successfully face all of these if we are together. Thank you all for your support! I am looking forward to keep working with all of you!", said Elena Fernández-Rodríguez, Incoming Chairwoman of PostEurop

The General Assembly officially ended with a special dinner hosted by An Post at their historical and iconic GPO building, where delegates were presented with the traditional (and dearly missed) awards ceremony, in order to present the winners of the 2022 Innovation, CSR Coups de Coeur and EUROPA Stamps Competition Awards (Read the related Press Releases). This was an extremely emotional evening as we also arranged a special farewell surprise for Mr Jean-Paul Forceville who will leave the position of PostEurop Chairman at year-end, after twelve dedicated years in leading the Association's endeavours. His chairmanship has allowed the PostEurop community to continuously evolve and prosper throughout the several challenges that the postal industry has faced. We would like to thank Mr Forceville for this, and to wish him luck not only for the remaining time of his mandate until the end of the year, but also for the different role he will assume within the PostEurop Board of Directors as of 1 January 2023.
