The National Company "Romanian Post" has become, for the first time in its history, Supplier of the Royal House of Romania, for correspondence services. The distinction confirms the institution's role in ensuring communication links at national and international level, continuously, for over 163 years.

In the same context, the Stamp Factory, a specialized branch of the Romanian Post, received, for the first time, the title of Supplier of the Royal House of Romania for philatelic products, consolidating the prestige of Romanian philatelic activity.

The distinctions were awarded during a ceremony held on Thursday, May 7, 2026, in the presence of Her Royal Highness Princess Elena of Romania, who handed over, on behalf of Her Majesty Custodian of the Crown Margaret of Romania, the Royal Household Supplier certificates to 17 companies, including the Romanian Post.

The National Company "Romanian Post" expresses its appreciation for this distinction and reaffirms its commitment to continue modernizing its services, while maintaining high standards of quality, seriousness and responsibility towards the public.
