International Post Corporation

An Posts' Suspension of mail to China

04-02-2020

Please note that mail services, excluding parcels, have been suspended to China as a result of the Coronavirus and with immediate effect. This follow the decision by a number of international airlines to suspend their services.

Up to date information is available from our Customer Services team on 01-7057600, regular updates will also be posted here.

Source: An Post