

Sakari Kiiskinen appointed as SVP of the Transval business group

01-09-2020

Sakari Kiiskinen, 46, has been appointed as SVP of the Transval business group and a member of Posti Group's Leadership Team as of September 1, 2020.

Kiiskinen has worked as the interim Head of the Transval business group since May 1, 2020. He has held various management positions at Transval for more than 10 years and served as Deputy Managing Director from 2017. Posti acquired Transval in January 2019, after which he led Transval's People Solutions business unit.

"Sakari Kiiskinen's expertise and long experience working at Transval were important factors in the selection process. His customer-oriented approach and ability to work closely together with Transval personnel will be valuable when he and his team will continue developing Transval further. I am very pleased that we will get Sakari to lead Transval," says Turkka

Kuusisto, President and CEO of Posti Group.

"The past four months as the interim Head of Transval business group have been very rewarding and I am very glad to have been given the opportunity to continue in this position. The changes in our operating environment and customer requirements demand a more customer-oriented approach and flexibility to react quickly to the changes. Together with our personnel we will systematically continue developing Transval's business as part of the Posti Group," says Sakari Kiiskinen.

Kiiskinen will be reporting to the CEO Turkka Kuusisto.
