On 13 April, IPC's Head of Markets Mark Harrison will give a presentation at the Global Symposium "Driving Sustainability through Leadership" in the postal and logistics sector.

On 13 April, IPC's Head of Markets Mark Harrison will give a presentation at the Global Symposium "Driving Sustainability through Leadership – in the postal and logistics sector". The symposium is organised by Swiss Post in association with the Universal Postal Union.

The one-day event will take place at the Swiss Post Headquarters in Bern and will gather sustainability experts and executives from across the postal sector. The symposium will be the occasion for posts to present what they are doing in the field of environmental sustainability. IPC will speak about the leading role the IPC Environmental Measurement and Monitoring System (EMMS) has played in driving postal sector sustainability efforts.
