

Correos, in the top ten of the InfoJobs Awards for the fourth year in a row

16-10-2026

Correos is among the ten companies in Spain best valued by its current and former employees, in the period from 2023 to 2025

Madrid, October 16, 2026. – Correos has been awarded in the fifth edition of the "InfoJobs Awards", organized by the employment platform "InfoJobs", which gives a voice to the professional teams of the companies and whose jury is the employees and former employees of the organizations.

For the fourth consecutive year, Correos is among the ten companies in Spain best valued by its current and former employees, in a ranking of 50 companies that also includes companies such as Carrefour, Inditex, El Corte Inglés, Mercadona, Amazon, Alsea, Grupo Eulen, Red Cross and Primark.

This ranking was compiled taking into account the assessments made by current professionals and former employees from 2023 to 2025.

Correos particularly values being included in this ranking, which recognizes the work and commitment of companies through the opinion of their own teams, and considers that it highlights the company's relevance in the workplace, as well as its contribution to economic development, social and territorial cohesion, and the provision of essential public services in Spain.
