An Post winsâ€™ top company award

04-09-2020

An Post just won â€œCompany of the Yearâ€ at the Irish Times Business Awards. To say we are delighted is an understatement! The dedication of all our staff over the last 5 months makes awards like these even more important. Thank you to our colleagues and also to all our customers.

An Post Chief Executive David McRedmond said ‘I want to particularly thank the An Post Management Board, the most talented, uncynical, hardworking and creative team I have ever worked with, together with the An Post Board, staff and unions’.
