International Post Corporation

NZ Post give free domestic courier services to 13 Kiwi charities

29-04-2024

Thirteen deserving charities and organisations have been given one year's worth of free domestic courier services as part of NZ Postâ€™s Delivering for Good programme â€“ with the public now invited to vote for the charity they wish to see receive an extra year of free courier services.

The People's Choice vote opens today and closes on Sunday 19 May. Voting can be done via the Delivering for Good website. The winner will be announced the following week.

"We are so proud to be able to support deserving charities from around Aotearoa New Zealand in providing free domestic courier services and know that thousands of Kiwis will again benefit from our Delivering for Good programme," NZ Post Group Sustainability Manager Dawn Baggaley says.

"Now it's up to the public to go online and vote for one of the 13 to receive another year's worth of free services and help the winning charity save even more money they would have normally spent on postage and courier services."

Dawn said to date over 87,000 parcels have been sent since the programme started in 2021.

"Our Delivering for Good initiative is part of NZ Post's social sustainability programme and allows charities and social enterprises to channel funds otherwise spent on couriers into expanding their services for the communities they support.

"For us, delivering for New Zealand also means supporting the neighbourhoods and communities where we live and work."

Source: NZ Post