PoÈ™ta RomÃ¢nÄƒ becomes member of International Post Corporation (IPC)

12-01-2026

PoÈ™ta RomânÄƒ, the leader in postal and logistics services in Romania, becomes, for the first time, member of International Post Corporation and joins over 20 key postal players worldwide.

Brussels/Bucharest, 12 January 2026 – PoÈ™ta RomânÄƒ, the leader in postal and logistics services in Romania, becomes, for the first time, member of International Post Corporation and joins over 20 key postal players worldwide.

By the end of 2025, PoÈ™ta RomânÄƒ completed a major transformation driven by significant investments, accelerated digitalisation, and the launch of a new visual identity. These efforts have enabled the company to transition to a high-performance operational model aligned with European standards in courier services, logistics, and integrated solutions.

Valentin È˜tefan, CEO PoÈ™ta RomânÄƒ, mentioned: "Becoming a member of IPC is a strong recognition of PoÈ™ta RomânÄƒ's transformation and international ambitions. This step allows us to further enhance our cross-border capabilities, adopt best practices from leading postal operators worldwide, and deliver higher-quality services to our customers."

Holger Winklbauer, IPC Chief Executive Officer commented: "We are delighted to welcome PoÈ™ta RomânÄƒ as a new member, allowing them to boost cross-border volumes and enabling extension of IPC network into the region. Becoming a member will enable PoÈ™ta RomânÄƒ to benefit from IPC's strategic support and from extended exchange with the leading postal operators worldwide, who will also learn from Posta Romana's digitalisation and modernisation experience".

IPC members benefit from exchange of experiences and best practices worldwide, innovative cross-border solutions and can rely on resource pooling. They also get access to modern technology infrastructure and to strategic market research results including customers, competitors and consumer trends.
